really, this goes to a completely different key, but I opted for enharmonics so you don't have to switch between flats and sharps

The musical score is written for a trumpet part. It begins with a key signature of four flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat, D-flat) and a 4/4 time signature. The first section, labeled 'A', consists of a single measure with a whole rest, followed by a double bar line and a repeat sign. The second section, starting at measure 5, contains four measures of music. The third section, starting at measure 9, also contains four measures of music. The fourth section, starting at measure 13, is a repeat section labeled 'REPEAT 3X' and contains four measures of music. The fifth section, labeled 'B', starts at measure 17 and contains four measures of music. The sixth section, starting at measure 21, contains four measures of music, with the first two measures having a '4' above them. The seventh section, starting at measure 29, also contains four measures of music, with the first two measures having a '4' above them.
